Terms and conditions of cooperation agreement

1. The subject of the agreement.

1.1. The subject of the agreement is rendering intermediary services by the Agent in sales of the Company's goods.

2. Liabilities of the Parties.

2.1. According to the subject of this agreement the Agent undertakes:

- to inform prospective customers of the Company about the Company's goods and advantages of buying the Company's goods,
- to familiarise prospective customers with the promotional and informational materials of the Company provided by the Company,
- when directing prospective customers to the Company to provide them with the individual Partner's number.

When a customer specifies the individual Partner's number of the Agent, it will be cause for the sale of the Company's goods to a customer with discount 5 %, and it will also be cause for paying of remuneration to the Agent.

2.2. According to the subject of this agreement the Company undertakes:

• to provide the Agent with necessary information on goods and prices for products,
• to inform the Agent of the sales made with the assistance of the Agent,
• to hold technical and commercial negotiations on the projects resulted from the Agent's actions or with the Agent's participation.

2.3. The company undertakes to timely and completely pay remuneration to the Agent, according to the present agreement.

3. Amount of remuneration and payment procedure.

3.1. The Company undertakes to pay remuneration to the Agent for performance of work under this agreement equal to 20 % of the amount received by the Company for each Company's commodity unit sold with assistance of the Agent.

3.2. The company undertakes to pay remuneration due to the Agent's sales made in the previous calendar month till the 15th date of the current calendar month.

3.3. Payment of remuneration is made by transfer of the corresponding amounts by the chosen Agent's way.

3.4. The Agent's commission can be paid by the authorised representative of the M.A.R.I.D. I company in the respective region.